(By the Associated Press.)
Chicago, July 23.—No further action toward ending the railway shopmen's strike is contemplated by the United States Railroad Labor Board at this time. Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the board, announced tonight on his return from a conference with President Harding at Washington.
Asked whether any new plans looking toward a settlement of the strike had been made, he dictated the following formal statement:
"My trip to Washington was mainly for the purpose of furnishing the President with the fullest information possible in regard to the strike situation. The President seeks to know this situation from every angle, from the viewpoint of the carriers, the employees, the Labor Board and the public.
"It is nothing else that can be said just now other than to answer the questions asked me by saying that no further action by the Labor Board is contemplated at this time."

While Mr. Hooper was meeting the government officials in Washington, E. M. Jewell and other strike leaders were in conference with James J. Davis, secretary of labor, at Mooseheart, Ill.
At the end of the meeting and before departing for Washington, Mr. Davis expressed the belief that the strike could be settled at once if the roads would restore the seniority rights of the strikers and the Labor board would take up the other questions in dispute.

Further progress was seen in the statement issued last night by Mr. Jewell in which he said:
Jewell's Three Issues.
"There are three principal issues now preventing a possible settlement of the railroad controversy, which are found in the refusal of the railroad executives:
"1. To discontinue contracting out of work.
"2. To establish a national board of adjustment.
"3. To continue seniority rights of employees who suspended work."

It was pointed out that the last list of demands contained one of the original three grievances which resulted in the strike call—that relating to the contracting out of outside contracting—and it was indicated that almost every road in the country already had agreed to stop that practice.

The omission of the original demands relating to wages and rules occasioned some comment, the belief being expressed that the shopmen finally had decided to agree to a re-hearing of these points by the Labor board.

No Action by the Government.
Washington, July 23.—The government's future course in the situation created by the strike of railroad shopmen was still left in the realm of conjecture today, though President Harding, who was in personal touch all day Saturday with the problem, cancelled his week-end engagements in order to stay at the White House Sunday when he could be in close communication with whatever other government agencies were active.

While there were numerous reports that a new step by the government was imminent, these were utterly without official confirmation, the only definite development today touching on the railroad strike being in relation to the coal industry. Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary Hoover and Chairman McChord of the Interstate Commerce commission were said to have agreed on the power of the commission to exercise a certain supervisory authority over the carriers which would assist in the operation of Mr. Hoover's plan for rationing the reduced coal supply.

Every possible contingency in connection with the rail situation has been being canvassed by President Harding in his conferences with advisors in the cabinet and with members of the senate, it was understood.

Strike Was Long Planned.
Washington, July 23.—The railroad shopmen have been preparing for the strike now in progress since April, 1921, and waited 15 months because of a desire to "accumulate enough grievances to support a demand for a nation-wide strike."

Union officials learned April 8, 1921, Mr. Conlon said, that the national agreement with the railroads was to be abolished, although the Railroad Labor board did not act until April 11. When individual agreements were sought, he declared, the unions "ran into identical demands from every road we approached, which indicated to us there was some central agency or authority directing the fight against us."

"Then we realized," he continued, "that we would have to sit tight and suffer in silence until enough grievances had been accumulated to support a demand for a nation-wide strike."

WHITE WITHDRAWS OFFENDING SIGN

Kansas Editor Arrested Under Industrial Court Law for Upholding Railroad Strike

(By the Associated Press.)
Emporia, Kansas, July 23.—William Allen White, editor of the Emporia Gazette, who, for several days has been displaying a placard in the window of the Gazette office, today kept his sign concealed from the public. The yellow poster announcing "we are for the striking railroad men 50 per cent." was removed late yesterday following the issuance of a warrant charging Mr. White with violating the industrial court law. The editor immediately made bond for his appearance when the case is called in the October term of the district court.

In a statement given out when the warrant was issued, Mr. White declared he was removing the offending sign, not in "acknowledgment of the right of the state to suppress free utterance, published in a decent and orderly manner," but because he believed a protesting citizen should obey the order of law while the case is pending.

A. P. MAN DROWNED IN LAKE

Athletic Heart Contributory Factor in Accidental Death of William A. Caldwell

Ticonderoga, July 23.—Accidental drowning, with an athletic heart as a contributory factor, caused the death of William A. Caldwell, general early service editor in the New York office of The Associated Press, who was the victim of a canoe accident on Lake George near here yesterday.

While no autopsy was performed, the attending physicians, Dr. Sargent and Dr. Cummings of this village, and Coroner John Breen decided that in the light of the fact that Caldwell was an ex-athlete and a powerful swimmer, an heart attack or fainting spell, undoubtedly prevented him from saving himself when his canoe overturned.

His body was taken tonight to his home at Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., where funeral services will be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Gloversville, July 23.—Bertram Boyd, 19, Syracuse, was drowned this afternoon at Green Lake, near here, while swimming with companions. Heart trouble is believed to have been the cause. Boyd fell from a boat within 35 feet of the shore.

MAN KILLED, THREE INJURED IN SHODACK LANDING CRASH

Pittsfield, Mass., July 23.—John Edmonds of Lanesboro, Mass., was killed and three Pittsfield men were seriously injured when an automobile struck the guard rail of a bridge at Shodack Landing, N. Y., early today and overturned.

Michael M. Killiben and William Phillips were taken to a hospital in Albany, probably fatally injured. John Houston also was taken to the hospital with a fractured arm and leg and other injuries.

The men were on their way from Albany when the accident occurred.

WOMAN SETS HERSELF Afire

Lockport, July 23.—The charred body of Miss Sarah M. Bulmer was found after a fire had been extinguished in an out-house on her father's farm near here today. Acting Coroner Pickett of Olcott, who investigated the case, said the woman apparently committed suicide by setting her clothing on fire.

MORATORIUM FOR GERMANY IS PROBLEM

Conference Between Premiers
Lloyd George and Poincare
Arranged for August

FRENCH INSISTENT

Assume British Will Cancel French Debt Whatever the Attitude of America

(By the Associated Press.)
Paris, July 23.—A conference between David Lloyd George, the British prime minister, and Raymond Poincare, the French premier, to discuss the question of a moratorium for Germany has been arranged for the first part of August.

It is expected the conference will assume the proportions of a meeting of the supreme council, as it is generally understood here that Belgium is sure to be represented and if the Italian cabinet crisis is solved in time, that Italy also will have delegates present.

The fact that Mr. Poincare will be accompanied by Minister of Finance Delostevy and Count Peretti de la Rocca, director of political affairs at the foreign office, as well as several technical experts from both the foreign affairs and finance ministries, and the premier's acceptance of the invitation to meet Mr. Lloyd George without waiting for the decision of the reparations commission on the moratorium question, are regarded here as significant that the fate of the German moratorium is more likely to be decided in London than Paris.

That Mr. Poincare reserves full freedom of action for himself at London is explained in a semi-official note issued at the foreign office today saying that the premier's letter to M. Dubois, head of the reparations commission on July 15, has been erroneously interpreted in some quarters as containing the "instructions of the French premier on the moratorium question to the French representative on the reparations commission."

Guarantee Committee Drafts Report.
The report of the guarantee committee is not yet ready, but M. Mauciere, of the committee, showed M. Poincare a draft of it last night.

It was after reading the report that he wired Premier Lloyd George he would be ready to meet him August 1. The report will be handed to the reparations commission the middle or end of this week and the decision of the commission is not expected before the third or fourth of August, when according to the present plan, Mr. Poincare will be in London.

Other angles of the reparations question are to be discussed in London. The French are reported to favor, first, cancellation of interallied war debts without subordinating cancellation to a similar decision by the United States; second, an agreement by which reparations payments be assigned especially to restoring the devastated regions, and third, assurance that German foreign loans, the proceeds of which are destined for reparations, shall be issued with the briefest possible delay.

London, July 23.—A dispatch to The Times from Paris says that when Premier Poincare goes to London to meet Premier Lloyd George he will make the trip assuming that the British offer to cancel the French debt will be forthcoming, whatever may be the attitude of the United States now or hereafter, and that M. Poincare will thereupon facilitate the reconvening of the bankers' committee or machinery which will secure quickly a large loan consigned to the reparations and restoration of France.

ORLANDO SEEKS FORMATION OF NEW ITALIAN CABINET

Rome, July 23.—Vittorio Orlando, who is trying to form a new ministry to take the place of that of Signor Facta, which resigned last week, conferred today with all the leaders of the various constitutional groups of the chamber of deputies. He urged the necessity of putting aside personal feelings and public interests and requested the leaders not to hinder the formation of a cabinet, which would only widen the political differences now prevalent.

FOUR WOUNDED IN CELTIC PARK RIOT

Trouble Follows Arrest of Man on Liquor Charge; Two Seriously Injured

New York, July 23.—A policeman, two men and a girl were wounded today in a riot which followed the arrest of a man on a liquor charge in Celtic Park, Long Island City.

When Patrolman John Bell took James Sullivan into custody, a crowd gathered, shouting for him to release the prisoner. Bell fired into the air in an attempt to disperse the crowd and an unidentified man opened fire. Bell was struck in the back, Rita Cusley, 38, was shot in the abdomen and two men were slightly wounded. Police reserves restored order. The policeman and the girl were taken to a hospital. Their wounds were said to be serious.

HEARSE STOPPED SEVEN TIMES BY DRY SLEUTHS

New York, July 23.—A black motor hearse, sent to Islip, Long Island, today for the body of a woman, was stopped seven times on the road by various bands of prohibition enforcement sleuths in quest of a shipment of bootleg whiskey.
Richard Norton, hearse driver, reported the incident to his employers. He said the usual question asked by the parties who halted him was: "What's that in the back of the hearse?"
"Going to Islip for a body," he answered.
He said he was compelled to open the hearse three times on the road to Islip and four times coming back with the body. In one instance, he added, the leader of the party attempted to open the casket, but he stopped him.

GIRL WHO AVENGED FATHER'S DEATH REFUSES FREEDOM

Mexico City, July 23.—María del Pilar Moreno, the fifteen year old girl, editor of El Heraldo de Mexico, has refused to take her liberty on bail and had notified the court that she prefers to remain in jail until brought to trial.
When the court fixed 5,000 pesos as the amount of bail it was several times subscribed to by friends and posted, but the girl declined the offer with thanks, saying that she was certain of a speedy acquittal.
She will remain in a girl's school of correction, which since her entry has been a house of flowers. The court allows her mother to visit her twice weekly.

FACING LONG PRISON TERM FOR PERJURY, MAN ENDS ALL

Montpelier, Vt., July 23.—Glen Hayford, sentenced yesterday to state prison for five to eight years for perjury, committed suicide last night in the Washington county jail by hanging himself with a rope used by the prisoners as a clothes line.
The charge on which Hayford was convicted came as a result of statements made by him in 1918 to obtain a license to marry Lillian Lee of Vermont, Vt., 13 years old. Hayford gave his age as 20 and the girl's as 18. Hayford had a wife in New Hampshire. The Lee girl is in a delicate condition.

AGED BANKER DIES TWO DAYS FOLLOWING 70-YEAR-OLD SON

Riverhead, July 23.—George W. Cooper, 94, a retired banker and former sheriff of Suffolk county, died tonight. His 70-year-old son, Clarence Cooper, died last Friday night. The father had not been told of the son's death.

The elder Cooper was an organizer and the first president of Suffolk County National bank and a trustee of Riverhead Savings bank.

INTERNATIONALE PROTESTS.

Moscow, July 23.—Karl Radok and M. Bucharin, as third international representatives at the Berlin conference, have sent an open letter to the British labor leaders, James Ramsay MacDonald, Arthur Henderson and Thomas Shaw, urging the British labor party to protest the death sentences of the assassins of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson.

LEWIS M. WEED DEAD.
Binghamton, July 23.—Lewis M. Weed, manufacturer and financier, widely known throughout the state, fell dead Saturday afternoon immediately after his return from a horse-back ride. He suffered an attack of cerebral hemorrhage. He was one of the largest clothing manufacturers in this section.

PERSHING WORKING ON HIS ARMY PLAN

Assignment of Guard Divisions to Specific Defensive Positions
Is Proposed

Washington, July 23.—Steps to establish "a national position in readiness for the army as a development of the national military policy are forecast in a memorandum recently submitted by General Pershing to Secretary Weeks and made public today at the war department.
Details of such plans as may have been already prepared by General Pershing are not disclosed. The general nature of the project, however, contemplates assignment of National Guard divisions to specific defensive positions on coasts and borders to which they would be rushed in the event of war.
"Under this plan," General Pershing said, "the military organizations required to secure critical landing places upon our coasts and favorable lines of advance to our land frontiers can be definitely formed and prepared. With such initial organization assured, the additional military units required for the full prosecution of a serious war can be mobilized at once and brought to full strength without disturbance or interruption."

GARLAND GIVES HIS WEALTH TO SOCIETY

Man Who Refused $1,000,000 Inheritance for Self Establishes $800,000 Endowment

New York, July 23.—Confirmation of his endowment of the American fund for public service here was made today by Charles Garland of North Carver, Mass., in a formal statement through Walter Nelles, one of the incorporators of the fund, that he was giving $800,000 of his $1,000,000 inheritance to "the advantage of all."
Garland, who attracted world-wide attention when he at first refused the $1,000,000 bequest from his father's estate, stated he gave the money because he thought "inherited wealth should be put to work for society."
"I believe that every person is an integral part of society," said Garland, "and that the interests of one individual cannot be divorced from the interests of other members of society without all having to pay the price for it in the end. From this it follows that I must strive to use whatever resources I have to the advantage of all."

"DRY GERMANY" OBJECT OF NEW ORGANIZATION

Darmstadt, Germany, July 23.—The opening gun of a campaign for "dry Germany" was fired here today by the "committees for the introduction of prohibition in Germany." This committee is headed by Dr. Strecker, former minister of education for Hesse. It comprises numerous academic, political and labor leaders and professional men and women from all sections of Germany.
It is a self-constituted organization and proposes to pursue a campaign to enlighten the German people on the nature of the Volstead act, urging the adoption of a similar law in Germany.

PYRENE EXTINGUISHERS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR GAS FUMES

New York, July 23.—The poisonous gas which was responsible for the collapse of several scores of passengers on the Lexington avenue subway express, a car which caught fire from a short circuit on July 6, was not generated by Pyrene fire extinguishers, as charged by city officials, according to the finding of the chief officer of the state board of investigation, in a report of the accident today. The report recommends that the commission direct the Interborough Rapid Transit company to resume the use of the tetrachloride extinguishers.

CARS RUN IN BUFFALO BUT HAVE VERY FEW PASSENGERS

Buffalo, July 23.—Street cars were run on all lines in Buffalo today, with no trouble from strikers although scarcely any passengers were carried. Night service will be partially resumed tomorrow. No cars have been run at night since the strike began three weeks ago. The company intends to extend the night service if no trouble follows. The city police will be put on the two-platoon system to furnish protection to the cars during the longer hours of service.

PROTESTS RUSSIAN "BLOCKADE"

Moscow, July 23.—A note just addressed by the Soviet government to Great Britain, France and Italy protests the failure of those countries, as custodians of the Dardanelles, to prevent Greek warships from passing through the straits and bombarding Anatolian ports. These warships in effect, says the note, are blockading Russian shipping in the Black sea.

HOOVER FUEL PLAN READY

Operators Asked to Cooperate in Distribution of Coal to Public Utilities

TRIBUNAL URGED

President Harding Asked to Appoint Non-Partisan Fact-Finding Body

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, July 23.—Operators from the coal producing districts of six states will be asked tomorrow by Secretary Hoover to cooperate with the government and the railroads in a plan to insure the distribution of fuel to the carriers and public utilities and to prevent profiteering during the strike emergency.

All angles of Mr. Hoover's scheme, which contemplates the formation of a central committee to operate through local committees in the producing districts of Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Alabama, were thrashed out today at a series of conferences of the federal agencies involved. Before the opening of the meeting at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Mr. Hoover will have from Attorney General Daugherty's report on the powers accruing to the government in the emergency through the co-operation of the Interstate Commerce commission and its authority under the law regulating interstate commerce.

In general, Mr. Hoover's program was understood to contemplate the creation of an emergency machine with the committee composed of a representative from the departments of commerce, justice and interior and the Interstate Commerce commission, with the commerce secretary as chairman, operating through the local committees established in the producing districts at the time of the voluntary agreements fixing maximum fair prices.

Non-Partisan Tribunal Urged.

Indianapolis, July 23.—President Harding was urged to appoint immediately a non-partisan fact-finding tribunal to inquire into the coal situation in a telegram sent him tonight by A. M. Ogle, president of the National Coal association. The President announced the consideration of such a commission last week.
Such a tribunal, if appointed immediately, the telegram declared, could develop within a comparatively short time such facts regarding the coal industry as "would strengthen your hand in carry out your program to start the mines in accordance with your proclamation to the governors of the several states involved."

Strike Situation in Pennsylvania.

Greenburg, Pa., July 23.—A substitution of the West Penn Power company, near Vandergrift, Pa., which supplies the Pine Run coal company mines, was destroyed by fire which followed an explosion tonight. The loss is estimated at about $20,000.
Bosses at a Pine Run mine near-by investigated and said they believed the station was dynamited. West Penn officials had received no word of the incident but said it was probable lightning had struck the station.

Unlontown, Pa., July 23.—A striking miner and his wife were wounded in a shooting at a tent colony near the Footdale mine of the H. C. Fricke Coke company today. Four deputy sheriffs were arrested.

The deputies, according to reports to Sheriff I. I. Shaw, were on the way to a mine at Collier. Their automobile stopped at the tent colony when the gasoline supply was exhausted. The deputies got into an argument with a striker and four shots were fired.

Washington, Pa., July 23.—Troops of the 104th cavalry, Pennsylvania National Guard on duty in the coal strike region, today were called upon to disperse a group of about 20 men in a street at the miners' camp at Cokeburg.

There was no resistance. Reports from all other points in the coal fields were that the situation was quiet.

MARILYNN MILLER PAYS HER RESPECTS TO FLO ZIEGFELD

Chicago, July 23.—Marilynn Miller, theatrical star, will promise to obey "and everything," when she makes her first appearance today at the Douglas Fairbanks, at the latter's Hollywood home August 1, she announced here today.
Referring to her disagreement with Florenz Ziegfeld, her manager, over the forthcoming marriage to Pickford, whose first wife, Olive Thomas, committed suicide in Paris, Miss Miller said today when she stopped on in Chicago en route to the coast:
"I am going to 'obey' and everything, and I will know my honest-to-goodness manager really is. The happiest day of my life, next to my wedding day, August 1, will be the one that releases me from Flo Ziegfeld's management."

She was joined here by her mother, who has been living in Chicago. Miss Claire Miller, a sister, accompanied her from New York.

KILLED ON TENSION WIRE

Nynck, July 23.—Fred Kopp of Pompton Lakes, N. J., a painter, was instantly killed on a high tension wire tower in a swamp near this city today. He had been painting the tower and when men reported he and a fellow worker had gone home power was ordered turned into the wires. Kopp fell a moment after the power was turned on. The other man was not injured.

CUPID LURING HAWAIIANS OUT OF EXISTENCE AS RACE

No Material Decrease in Death Rate, but Records Show Many Intermarriages.

The Hawaiian race is not "dying out," but in reality is "marrying itself out of existence," according to a statement made by Miss M. Hester Lemon, registrar of vital statistics.

Although there has been no material increase in the death rate of pure-blooded Hawaiians during the last four years, the birth rate for the calendar year 1921 showed a material decrease as compared with those of the four preceding years and indicated that Hawaiian men and women are destroying their own race by marrying into other groups, she said.

"It will be seen readily that this practice will tend to increase the part-Hawaiian population and at the same time decrease the pure-Hawaiian population in so far as the future is concerned," she added.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, there were 160 marriages between Hawaiian couples. In addition to these, 58 Hawaiian men married women of other races and 142 Hawaiian women were married to men of other groups. Births among Hawaiian families during the calendar year 1921 were 42 less in number than those registered during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921.

Applications for allotments on land in the rehabilitation settlement on the island of Molokai were made by 78 Hawaiian or part-Hawaiian families before the time limit expired, according to announcement by the homes commission, which has charge of the attempts to rehabilitate the Hawaiian race.

There are lots available for only 20 or 24 families and the commission will select what it considers the best fitted families among the applicants to inaugurate the "back to the land" movement for the Hawaiians as it was conceived by the late Prince Jo Kūhio Kalaninui during his service as delegate to congress, it was announced.

As soon as arrangements can be made other tracts will be prepared on Molokai for additional settlers.

The commission hopes to be able to place the first group on the land by July.

Timing Flies.

Man's ingenuity, which has enabled swallows to be tracked from Scotland to South Africa, by means of identification disks attached to them, has also compelled the domestic fly to betray the secret of its winter retreat. This has been accomplished by the American national bureau of entomology which last autumn trapped a quarter of a million flies, marked them with indelible paint pigments (fading work, painting flies), released them and later recaptured no fewer than 60 per cent. The great majority went in a westerly direction, and mainly at right angles to the wind, and they were retrapped in places very favorable for breeding purposes. But as a traveler the swallow has the fly beaten to a frazzle. The bird can manage a sprint of four miles a minute, but musca domestica's record in the American trials was 9 miles in 48 hours.

"Old-fashioned" Ruskin.

Nevertheless, though the future may prefer to read Ruskin in selections, it is not conceivable that the present affections to despise so great a writer and so fine a spirit will persist. This generation may be tired of Ruskin, but the next will return to his noblest things with a new pleasure. He had an ear, passion, exquisite sensibilities, a wonderful eye for the minutest and the grandest colored forms of nature; and he made some of the most magnificent things in English prose, passages like the lament over St. Mark's unsurpassed descriptions of pictures, landscapes, trees, flowers—Solomon Eagle

ACCEPT PRINCE'S CREED IN HAWAII

Organize to Carry Out Rules of Late Congressman.

BASED ON LOYALTY TO U. S.

Education is Particularly Stressed in Ten Commandments With Obedience to the Law and Frugality—Must Conserve the Lands for the Race and for Posterity—Plan to Raise $150,000 for Endowment for Higher Education of Hawaiians.

The wishes of the late Prince Jonah Kūhio Kalaninui, Hawaii's delegate to congress for twenty years, regarding the conduct and lives of his people will be carried out by members of the Puuhonua society, founded by a group of leading Hawaiians, according to resolutions adopted at the organization meeting.

The first endeavor of the society will be to obtain $150,000 to found the Kūhio endowment fund for the higher education of Hawaiian youths, to assist older persons to obtain lands, to aid in the establishment of hospitals and schools and to act as an eleemosynary, educational and philanthropic organization for the native race.

The Ten Commandments.
Ten commandments were laid down for the conduct of Hawaiians. They consisted of advice that had been given by the late Prince, and read: "Thou shalt Americanize Hawaii, and keep alive the American institutions in this, thy native country. The burden is upon you. The other races come and go, whereas we are born only to die—we have no longings for other places."

"Thou shalt love thy race and love thy land or you will be an outcast. You must be a true Hawaiian before you can become a true American."

"Thou shalt conserve the lands for the race and incidentally for thy posterity."

"Thou shalt support the Hawaiian Homes commission in making a success of the rehabilitation of thy race on the land of Hawaii."

"Thou shalt provide financial assistance for the education and the broadening of thy boys and girls on the mainland. The competition is keen and will be more so in the future."

"Thou shalt strive to control the production of the foodstuffs and prepare thine own poi from taro cooked at thy home."

No Race Suicide.
"Thou shalt increase thy birth rate and strive to bring many children to healthy manhood and thereby decrease thy death rate."

"Thou shalt in thine own life be frugal and temperate and work to increase thy material welfare and that of thy family."

"Thou shalt support and abide by the laws, enforcing prohibition of the manufacture and use of intoxicating liquor. Liquor has retarded the advance of our race. Our increase is hopeful with liquor out of the way."

"Thou shalt 'stop, look and listen' and take an active interest and a full part in the government of thy native land. Thou must ever keep alive with the times."

Cities of Asia.

Cities, and villages, and countryside, where the sky holds strange orange and cerise lights, barred with clouds of purple and maroon chiffon, which add something to one's knowledge of sunsets, others chillily steel-gray and silver, and hard like Japanese enamel, still others an even, tranquil turquoise, very luminous, yet without sheen, Cities pink and mauve and bistre and Mandarin blue and chocolate brown and glaucous green nicked with arrogant scarlet; cities dazzlingly white, on a sad background of sepi; cities and villages that seem like flakes of snow dropped on sudden granite slabs; countryside of soft curves and heliotrope gossamer vapors, rising to a horizon of unlikely orchid; houses and fields that stare at you with all the unspeakable melancholy, with all the stark patience of the swinging Asian centuries.—Achmed Abdullah, in the Reviewer.

"I do not know what some people call a 'good' picture; yet, if a picture that makes you leave the theatre with tears in your eyes, and a happy heart, and a desire to accomplish an indefinite something great, is a good picture, then 'HAIL THE WOMAN' is one of the best pictures I have ever seen."

Goodrich

announces new tire prices

—lowest cost mileage ever known

Effective July 20th, Goodrich establishes a revised price list that is a base line of tire value. It gives the motorist the buying advantage of knowing that whatever size tire he selects is of the same quality—the Goodrich one-quality standard. It gives him the longest mileage, the most satisfactory service and the highest quality his money can buy. Results will prove that it is impossible to buy tire mileage at lower cost.

Think of being able to buy Silvertown Cords
at such prices as these:

SIZE	BASE LINE PRICE	SIZE	BASE LINE PRICE
30 x 3 1/2 CL.	$13.50	34 x 4 S. B.	$30.85
31 x 3.85 CL.	15.95	32 x 4 1/2 S. B.	37.70

HEALTH FOR GRADUATES.
Dr. Royal Copeland, in a recent health letter, urges the young people who graduated from high school and college this year to take up systematic physical exercise, which has played so important a part in their school training. There is no doubt that the young man or woman who follows his advice will benefit as the doctor prophesies.

"It is not uncommon," says Dr. Copeland, "for boys and girls to lose their rosy cheeks immediately after leaving high school, or young men and women after college. It is not work or new surroundings which have caused the change, but is the neglect of familiar exercise, the regular hours and the well directed life."

This is timely counsel for the young graduates who are prone to believe that all which pertained to school life is over because school days are done, and who is especially prone to underestimate the importance of the instruction which he received in the care and development of his body.

The healthy mind in the healthy body is the modern ideal in education, and the youth who neglects his physical welfare when his schooling is over has failed to grasp one of the fundamentals of his training.

FIRELESS AKRON.
Akron, O., the "rubber city," has established a new record for fire prevention. When whole cities unite for fire prevention, we are getting somewhere.

There is perhaps no human evil so consistently due to preventable causes as fire. There are cases of spontaneous combustion, to be sure, but these generally occur because somebody leaves inflammable materials in an unsuitable location. Then there is lightning, to which even the "fireless" enthusiast must bow as a superior and practically uncontrollable force. But for all the other ordinary, innumerable fires which destroy property and lives and lay low the works of God and man, who shall say a defensive word?

Prevention of fire, winter or summer, is a matter of taking pains enough. When, instead of pitying the fire sufferer as an innocent victim, we learn to frown darkly upon him as a careless person and a disgrace to his fellow men, it may help.

TOURIST PHOTOGRAPHY.
One motor car company is trying an advertising plan which ought to make good. It is asking owners of its cars to take snapshots during their summer trips, which will show their cars or those of fellow tourists (of the same make) in unusual situations or amid particularly lovely surroundings. There are liberal prizes for the best pictures.

Kodaking as they go is already a national custom. But this particular scheme may just possibly start something more than originally planned. With a lot of tourists hoping to capture a prize as a result of a little careful picture-taking, there is going to be a good deal of close observation of other people's cars as well as a good deal of comparison of car merits. The picture-taking tourist who goes forth knowing little about any car except his own will come home well acquainted with many others, and either ready to try one of these other or more thoroughly convinced than ever that his own is the best on the market for his purpose.

WATER DEMONSTRATIONS

Nine Meetings This Week in Connection with County Farm Bureau.

The Farm Bureau, in cooperation with the College of Agriculture is putting on demonstrations on the installation of running water in the home. This is the most necessary labor saver and should receive your hearty cooperation.

A demonstration has been scheduled for your community, the date and place is included in the following schedule:

- July 24, 2 p. m.—Foot's garage, Otsego.
- July 25, 10 a. m.—Jas. Ferguson estate, Milford Center.
- July 25, 2 p. m.—Lena public hall, Lena.
- July 26, 9 a. m.—Macabee hall, South Valley.
- July 26, 2 p. m.—Floyd S. Wright, Westford.
- July 27, 9 a. m.—Karl Green, Westville.
- July 27, 2 p. m.—George Heald, White Corners.
- July 28, 9 a. m.—The Annex, Burdett.
- July 28, 2 p. m.—Harold Gates, Canfield, Forks.

It has been necessary to change the time of the morning meetings, as it is impossible for the workers to take down their equipment and reach the next community in time for the afternoon meeting.

Prof. Goodman and assistants from the College of Agriculture will be present with the truck to give the demonstration. They will show how running water may be installed in any farm home, any part at time or all at once, at a nominal cost.

The county agent plans to attend each of these demonstrations in order that he may discuss any personal matter which any may desire to present. He is working alone this year and will therefore make few personal farm visits. This demonstration will be given rain or shine. Please attend and bring others with you.

COMMENT ON CURRENT NEWS

President's Wise Amnesty Policy.
Those emotionalists who are begging President Harding to release all persons still imprisoned for violation of wartime laws have selected a singularly inopportune time for making their plea. Not so long ago the President, in the goodness of his heart, and in the belief that he was a harmless old man carried away by fantastic theories, pardoned Eugene Debs. Now, in one of the most critical situations we have had since the close of the war, Debs is virtually preaching lawlessness, and telling the workers not to pay any attention to the fervent appeals of the President to settle the coal and railroad strikes. Mr. Harding is noted for his desire to help everybody in his power, but he would not be human if he did not feel disposed to scrutinize all future pleas for amnesty with special care.—[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

The Italian Cabinet.
The Fascist cabinet in Italy like several of its predecessors, has fallen because it was unable to repress internal disorders. The violence of Communists and Fascists, dying down from time to time, breaks out again; it cannot be allowed to continue, yet no government can make up its mind to repress it by strong measures. At last the chamber seems to have tired of a government whose policy of wait-and-see produced a great deal of waiting, with little else.—[New York Times.]

Profiteers Responsible.
"Commodity index still advancing?" Indeed it is. But there's not much use of expecting wages to go backward simultaneously. Profiteers are responsible for a lot of economic dislocation.—[Brooklyn Eagle.]

One Advantage.
Whatever the hardships of agriculture there is one advantage. A farmer has the best of everything when it comes to the food supply.—[Troy Record.]

Lesson of Tragedy.
It should not have required such a tragedy as occurred at Watertown to teach the state military authorities that "dead" shells should not be left around Pine Plains to be picked up by miscellaneous souvenir hunters or to convince the people of neighboring communities that such articles are not suitable garden ornaments.—[Buffalo Express.]

Led Them All!
Texas led all states in May. Not in industry, bank deposits, charities or science—just lynchings.—[Ogdenburg Republican-Journal.]

SUPREME COURT CASES

Four Hearings Saturday Before Justice A. L. Kellogg in Chambers at Oneonta.

The following four cases were before Supreme Court Justice A. L. Kellogg at chambers in this city: Charles Dinsland vs. Thomas H. Knapp, executor of the estate of Truman Johnston et al. This is a Worcester case—an action in partition. Proofs of the rights and interests of the parties were taken and an interlocutory judgment directed. J. S. Waterman of Worcester appeared for the plaintiff, Seybolt & Seybolt of Oneonta and Charles H. Merriam of Milford for the parties of interest.

In the matter of the examination of Samuel Justice, judgment debtor, in the proceedings supplementary to execution upon the application of Fred W. Green, judgment creditor, under a judgment recovered in an action entitled Supreme Court Herkimer county, Fred W. Green against Samuel Justice of Richfield Springs. Order of the court, why judgment debtor should not be punished for contempt of court. Mr. Justice was directed to appear for examination before James J. Hyatt Jr. as referee on a date to be agreed upon by the parties and to pay $20 costs. George L. VanHorne esq. of Cooperstown for plaintiff, W. S. Eaton of Richfield for debtor.

Edna Steer, against Leroy Steer, Action for divorce, statutory grounds. Proof taken and decree granted. Ward N. Truesdell, district attorney of Chenango county, of Sherburne, for plaintiff. Plaintiff resides in Sherburne.

Roger T. Coyle vs. Erla P. Smith, Eva C. Thompson and others, an action in foreclosure in Delaware county. Arthur C. Curtis of Delhi was appointed to compute the rights and interests of the parties and to report. William H. Roberts of Davenport for the plaintiff.

The last special term at chambers before September 2 will be held July 29 at 10 a. m.

CHANGE IN SPEAKERS.

Senator Willis Called Back to Washington, Says Dispatch.

Because of the stress of important questions on the tariff issue at Washington, Senator Frank B. Willis, who was to lecture next Tuesday night at the Chautauqua, has been called back to congress and his engagement in this city is to be filled by Senator Pat Harrison, minority leader in the senate, says a Norwich dispatch.

NOT FULLY APPRECIATED

Popular Taste in Cheese Satisfied With Poor Quality Product, Says Experts.

It is the opinion of cheese experts at the experiment station at Geneva, where much important work with American cheddar cheese has been done, that the popular taste for cheese in this country is so easily satisfied with a poor grade product that most users of cheese do not discriminate between really good cheese and the poorer grades, and that as a consequence much cheese of inferior quality is found in the market. This does not mean that good cheese is not made in American cheese factories, say the experts, but that the general run of the product on the market is of poor quality as judged by standards set by the cheese men.

Recently, the station experts conducted a study of the cheese organizations and their relation to the quality of the product. Samples of 33 ordinary commercial cheddar cheeses were purchased from retail dealers without regard to the quality of the cheese. The cheeses had been made in about 23 different factories, most of them located in New York state, while others had been shipped in from Canada and Wisconsin.

"The striking point in looking over a series of samples gathered at random from the retail grocers is the general poor quality of the cheeses," say the experts. "None of the samples thus purchased were of a high quality and all appeared to be not over a few weeks or months old. Only a few of the samples had a well-ripened flavor and several were of the washed-curd variety."

Besides the greatly improved flavor of the product, a well-ripened cheddar cheese is much more digestible and thus had a greater food value than a poorly ripened cheese, declare the experts. However, since the cheese industry will naturally cater to the public demand, most cheese will be put on the market before it has had time to fully ripen and no special effort will be made at the cheese factory to insure a high grade product until the public acquires a taste for cheese of high quality and demands a well-ripened product of uniformly high grade.

VACANCY AT WEST POINT

Congressman Clarke Notified That He Is Entitled to the Appointment of a Cadet There.

Congressman John D. Clarke of this district who is now at his home at Fraser near Delhi, looking after his farming interests, has been notified by the War department that he is entitled to the appointment of a cadet to the United States Military academy at West Point.

The candidate must report on the first Tuesday in March next for examination, who if then found to possess the requisite qualifications will be admitted to the academy on the second of July following. Those applying to the appointment must be residents of the 34th congressional district and be not under 17 nor over 22 years of age on the date of admission and not less than five feet and four inches in height.

Congressman Clarke has requested the federal service commission to prepare questions and hold an examination of candidates for the appointment and hold the examination at a date and place to be determined by it. Any young man residing in the district desiring to take this examination should write Congressman Clarke and obtain full information regarding the examination, addressing him at Room 455, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Taken to Industry.

Sheriff Fred S. Williams has returned from industry, he having taken to the school there, Earl Hall of Milford, who had been committed by Justice Perry Bennett of that town. Hall was charged with pilfering from the money drawer of one of Milford's merchants.

READ CAREFULLY AND THEN VERIFY

The BROADWAY DEPARTMENT STORE, Los Angeles, California, through their Mr. Amos, says:

"A. A. Hobbs took a worn out battery in one of our electric trucks and by the use of Hobbs Electrolyte gave the truck 50% more miles per charge than the battery gave when new."

Miss EMMA DIERS, 367 Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena, California, says:

"The battery in my electric coupe had run nearly 9,000 miles and A. A. Hobbs, by the use of the Hobbs Electrolyte, increased the mileage from 60 to 95 miles per charge. This Electrolyte was put into my battery about sixteen months ago. This battery has propelled the vehicle over 14,000 miles and I believe is good for 4,000 to 5,000 miles more, as the battery shows no signs of giving out."

Mrs. J. E. FULLWOOD, 1131 West Adams Street, Los Angeles, California, says:

"A. A. Hobbs, by the use of Hobbs Electrolyte, made my electric coupe run over 50% more miles per charge than the car ever ran before, and the same sized battery was used."

Mr. R. T. CUMMINGS, 5622 Monte Vista Avenue, Pasadena, California, says:

"Before putting myself on record as to the results obtained from the use of the battery which you sold me last spring, I wished to take sufficient time to assure myself that it was going to continue to show the remarkable mileage and performance which it developed when first delivered to me.

"Now, after six months of use, I feel that I would be failing in my duty were I to refrain from advising you of my satisfaction and from giving you information as to the improvement your treatment has shown in my car. Whereas, before I had your Hobbs treatment, I was able to drive my car never over 67 miles on one charge, now I am driving the car an average of 100 miles on a charge, and it requires less time and current now for each charge than before your treatment.

"From the present condition of my battery I am convinced that the life of it will greatly exceed the guarantee of two years which you gave me. It is with genuine pleasure that I write this statement, and I trust it will influence others to seek the services which you are able to give.

We suggest that all residents of Oneonta and vicinity ask Mr. E. W. Elmore, proprietor of Elmore Milling Co. and vice-president Oneonta Storage Battery Corp. what "Hobbs Electrolyte" did on his electric coupe.

LOCAL MENTION

The Sunday school of the River Street Baptist church will hold its annual picnic at Neahwa park on Tuesday of this week, weather permitting.

Thirty-seven automobile accidents occurring in the city or vicinity have been reported at police headquarters during the month of July to date, a greater number than for any month for some time.

There were rumors current of a motor car accident on the Otego road yesterday morning caused by two racing cars meeting another car, but The Star has been unable to find anyone who could give any definite information.

The Endicott-Johnson American Legion team passed through the city yesterday in a motor bus on their way to Saranac Lake, where they will play a series of exhibition games during the week. The Legionnaires will play the Oneonta Giants at Neahwa park Saturday.

The coal situation in the city is rapidly becoming serious. There is practically none in the bins of local dealers or of consumers and there is no assurance that the shortage will be relieved before cold weather begins. The D. & H. company has enough locomotive fuel in storage to last until November 1.

CO. G PAY DAY

Pay Checks to be Distributed Tonight
Men Keenly Anticipating Camp at Peekskill and Trip to State Fair.

There is no doubt but that every member of Co. G who is able to travel will be on hand to answer roll call tonight. The pay checks for which the soldiers have been waiting are here and will be distributed. For each drill attended the men receive one-thirtieth of the base pay of their grade for a month. The smallest amount received is one dollar per drill, which is better than sixty cents per hour.

Every member of the company is now looking forward to the tour of camp at Peekskill from Aug. 13 to 27. That historic camp ground has been improved so that two regiments can be accommodated at one time. New kitchens and mess halls have been constructed and the old regimental mess hall will be used by the Y. M. C. A. for canteen and recreation purposes.

The company is also pleasantly anticipating a trip to the state fair at Syracuse in September. Among the features of the fair is a military demonstration and Co. G hopes to be one of the units favored by having its members selected to take part. The opportunity has also created sufficient interest outside the company that several not now members are making inquiries with the intention of joining.

LESS INCOME FOR FIVE YEARS.

For First Methodist Church for Five-Year Period, Says Dr. Johns.

Rev. Dr. Johns gave a plain talk to his people at the morning service at the First Methodist church yesterday, an impression having been prevalent that the church, having been remembered so handsomely by the late George I. Wilber, is now on easy street financially.

While voicing appreciation of the gift made, Dr. Johns called attention to the fact that none of the bequests are made available to the church until the end of the five-year period, neither is the income from any of the bequests to be paid to the church during that time.

Consequently, said Dr. Johns, the church will be without the $300 to $1,000 which the late Mr. Wilber had been contributing yearly to the various church activities, leaving it incumbent upon the membership to work more earnestly and give more generously to maintain the church for the five years. He appealed to all to give their best efforts that the church need slacken none of its activities.

Meetings Today.

Regular meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary of Bordenmakers' union, this evening at 7:30, in K. of P. hall. Refreshments at close of meeting.

Regular meeting Canton David Wilber, No. 37, I. O. O. F., in I. O. O. F. temple this evening at 8 o'clock.

Bible Study class, group 4, will meet tonight at 7:30 with Mrs. Dickson, 105 Elm street.

Regular meeting of Perseverance lodge in Trainman's hall tonight. Officers come early, as meeting will begin promptly at 7:30.

Rain Postpones Games.

Jupiter Pluvius embraced Elmira in the territory selected for showers yesterday, postponing the contemplated game between Oneonta and Brooklyn Royal Giants.

Rain was also the cause of the non-playing of the scheduled game between Norwich and Troy Professionals at Norwich.

TWELVE PERSONS INJURED

THREE CARS WRECKED AND DOZEN PERSONS HURT IN ACCIDENTS SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hudson and Three Children of Schenectady and Mrs. Joseph Markley and Two Children of Schenectady Badly Cut in Collision Near Emmons — M. D. Bomhower and Three Passengers Injured When Hudson Goes Over Bank.

Twelve persons injured and three cars badly wrecked constituted the week-end toll of automobile accidents in the vicinity. Eight persons were painfully but not seriously injured when two cars collided head-on near Emmons at about 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening and four persons were hurt when the big Hudson touring car of M. D. Bomhower of this city turned turtle near Springfield Center later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hudson of 505 Weaver street, Schenectady, and their three small children and Mrs. Joseph Markley and two children of Schenectady were painfully cut and bruised in the first mentioned accident, which occurred approximately opposite the farm of Ward McFee. The Hudson party, in a Maxwell touring car, was on its way from Schenectady to Unadilla to visit Mrs. Hudson's mother and was just behind the car driven by A. G. Butts of 50 Miller street, this city. Coming toward them was a Studebaker touring car driven by Joseph Markley of Schenectady, with him being his wife and two small children. Hudson swung into the middle of the road and tried to pass the Butts car. Mr. Butts, seeing the danger of a collision with the Markley car, swung sharply to his right and went into the ditch, Markley, thinking that the Maxwell would swing back to its own side of the road kept coming and the two cars met head-on.

Mrs. Hudson was thrown through the windshield, landing on the radiator, while the others in her car were tossed about and showered with broken glass, all of them receiving cuts. Dr. J. M. McClellan of this city was called and he dressed the injuries of the Hudson party, those in the other car being taken to the Fox Memorial hospital by a passing motorist. Mrs. Hudson sustained an 11 inch gash across her forehead which required nine stitches to close and suffered somewhat from shock. Her husband sustained several bad gashes on his face and forehead. Their 12 year old daughter had three deep gashes, one over the left eye and two in the edge of her hair, the six year old boy had a cut on his face and the three year old girl had a slight cut on her back of the head.

Police Chief Horton and Sheriff Williams were soon on the scene and they took the members of the Hudson party to Unadilla. It was found at the hospital that none of the Markley family were badly injured. Mrs. Markley suffered from shock and was kept at the hospital over night for observation, being discharged yesterday morning. The children, Teressa, aged 4, and Andrew, aged 2, were slightly cut and bruised and badly scared. The two cars were nearly totally wrecked. The motive units were broken and pushed out of place and the front ends of both crushed in.

The Bomhower Accident.

M. D. Bomhower, proprietor of the Prospect garage in this city, sustained three broken ribs and severe contusions and bruises about the head and body, and his four passengers, whom he was bringing home from a dance, were injured, one of the girls having her ankle fractured, when the nearly new Hudson car was sideswiped by another machine, smashed into a tree and then toppled down a 12 foot embankment near Springfield Center at about midnight Saturday. The wonder of the accident is that there were no fatalities as the car turned completely upside down.

Mr. Bomhower, who runs an auto livery in connection with his garage, had taken the party, consisting of two young men and two girls, whose names could not be ascertained last evening, to Springfield Center to a dance and was returning with them. They had reached a point in the road near the Ryerson farm and approximately where the serious accident occurred on July 4, when they met a Ford car which, in passing, sideswiped the Hudson, throwing it into a tree. Mr. Bomhower lost control when the steering gear broke and the big car plunged from the road and down a 12 foot embankment, landing upside down. All were thrown from the car except Mr. Bomhower, who was pinned in by the steering wheel, the services of several men being required to lift the car from his body.

He was brought to his home at 58 Maple street and attended by Dr. C. R. Marsh who found three broken ribs and severe contusions and bruises on the head and body. Three of the four passengers were taken to the Bassett Memorial hospital in Cooperstown. One girl had a broken ankle and the two men were slightly cut and bruised. The car was badly damaged and was brought in the day to the Bomhower garage for repairs.

Minor Accidents.

Two minor accidents were reported yesterday at police headquarters. Saturday evening the Nash car of H. M. Tiffany and the Hudson car of Arthur Giftakus, purchased that day, came together at the corner of Broad street and Water street. Tiffany was going down Broad and Giftakus was coming out of the alley, neither seeing the other in time to prevent a collision. The only damage resulting was a bent fender on the Nash and a bent bumper on the Hudson. Lamont Watrous of this city reported that at about 5:15 yesterday afternoon he was smashed into the rear of a Ford sedan with his Ford coupe near the railroad crossing at Cooperstown Junction. Rain on his windshield obscured Watrous' vision and he did not see the other car ahead of him in time to prevent the collision. The tire carrier and tail light on the sedan were broken and a fender was bent on Watrous' coupe.

TUSKEGEE'S 6,000 GRADUATES

All Have Knowledge of Some Trade in Addition to Scholastic Training — Singers Appear at First Methodist Church Yesterday.

Professor Goy, one of the singers from Tuskegee Institute appearing at the First Methodist church yesterday morning and evening was converted in Capetown, South Africa, under the preaching of Bishop Hartill of the Methodist church. He has since completed a course at Tuskegee and in addition to a command of English that many public speakers might well covet he is a competent carpenter. One of the strong features of the institution which others might well imitate is that all of the graduates now leaving go with an academic diploma in one hand and proficiency in some trade in the other.

The singers no doubt were in part responsible for the two large congregations present at the services, the edifice being filled to the doors last evening. They sang at both services to the enjoyment and inspiration of all worshippers, typical hymns and Negro spirituals abounding. Professors Goy and Wood, both made short addresses outlining the work of the institution and appealing for support. Among the interesting statements made might be quoted that there are now 2,700 students in attendance and that these are being instructed in one of 42 trades and that the institution has graduated no less than 6,000 since it was established. Both speakers were heard with interest and their ability evidenced that the institution is developing men who think as well as those who have a knowledge of some trade.

The collections taken for the benefit of the institute aggregated about $80.

UNADILLA HERE TODAY

Aggregations of Bridwell and Bell Will Meet at Neahwa Park This Afternoon for First Time in Weeks.

There are certain expressions of three words in the English language that express a world of emotion. They are the three words that cause a flutter in the hearts of man and maid and there are the three words that cause a flutter in the hearts of Oneonta baseball fans. These three words are "Unadilla Here Today." That flutter, our good friends from down the valley, is not one of apprehension but rather one of keen expectancy. It is true that in six battles the Bell's crew has succeeded in winning the decision four times, but there's a better day coming for Oneonta, and Bridwell and his men have vowed that today it is and that they will have been tied to the Athletics.

The Giants were originally scheduled to play at Stamford today but as Oneonta will play there on Wednesday and as Stamford could make arrangements to come with Norwich it was decided to cancel the contest that Unadilla might play here. The change will be welcomed by fans, who have waited for weeks to get another chance at Unadilla.

Doubtless there will be a good attendance today. The game will surely be hotly contested and interesting every bit of the way and there will be few who will want to miss it. The game will start at 3:30.

Truck Called for Slight Blaze.

A slight blaze which developed after the wiring of the Ford car of Dr. J. B. McClellan as it was standing in the driveway at his residence on Elm street last evening caused fear that the car might be destroyed and the combination fire truck was summoned by phone. The use of a hand extinguisher sufficed to put out the fire. The only damage done was to the wiring.

SHERIFF TO PROSECUTE

All Youthful and Unlawful Drivers of Motor Cars Found Upon the Highways of the County — Public Safety Requires Action Says Mr. Williams.

"The driving of motor cars upon the highways of the county by boys and girls not qualified to drive except when accompanied by the owner of the car or a licensed chauffeur must cease," Sheriff Fred S. Williams of Cooperstown declared to a Star representative on Saturday, while in the city on business errands. "One encounters these youthful drivers who are not permitted by law to drive upon the highways daily. Not only is it a violation of law, but it is menacing to the safety of the highways for other and lawful users and the condition has become serious and must be remedied," added Mr. Williams.

In discussing the subject further, Sheriff Williams said that there cannot be any further delay in enforcing the law, as the conditions are becoming worse each week and serious accidents have been averted in large part only because of rare good luck. They may get along safely for weeks and months, but when an emergency arises they are not competent to handle an instrument so dangerous as a motor car, and it is his intention to spend some time upon the roads and to arrest all offenders until respect for the law is manifested by all.

Persons under 18 years of age are not permitted to drive cars except when accompanied by the owner or a licensed chauffeur, yet this provision is being openly and with little consideration for the other users violated.

At the very moment that the Sheriff was making the above comment a touring car in which there were two young girls riding alone passed along Main street, the girl at the helm being, from her appearance, at least, barely in her teens. "That girl would have little judgment to act in an emergency and it is only rare good luck that she is able to take that car down through Main street."

WANT EXPRESS SERVICE

Alderman France Files Request With Public Service Commission.

Residents of the city west of the former end of the pavement on Chestnut street are very desirous of securing express service in that section of the city, the expense of delivering there being quite an additional burden. No satisfaction having been secured by former requests, Alderman H. B. France has filed a request with the Public Service commission that the company be required to give delivery and pick up packages therein. Mr. France calls attention to the fact that the pavement is now being extended along Chestnut street to the city limits and that the adjacent streets are being rounded up and graded and that there exists in his mind at least no reason why service should not be given residents.

Mr. France is in receipt of an acknowledgment of the complaint and a statement to the effect that the request will be given consideration and conditions investigated. It is hoped that the request will be granted as there is considerable business developing in that part of the city and more will follow the extension of the service.

VOTERS' LITERARY TEST

PREPARED BY SECRETARY OF STATE FOR USE PRIMARY DAYS.

Selects 400 Extracts from the State Constitution of Approximately 50
Words With Which Election Boards
Are to Test New Voters.

Within the next few days boards of elections throughout New York state will receive from Secretary of State John J. Lyons copies of the 100 extracts which he has taken from the state's constitution, and which will be used as a literary test for new voters in New York state on registration days this fall. Under the provisions of the new law, inspectors on the registration boards are given full authority to require all new voters, male as well as female, to prove that they can read and write English. These new voters include those who are naturalized and are voting for the first time, those who have entered New York state from other states and those who are entitled to vote by reason of the fact that they have reached their twenty-first birthday.

In selecting the extracts from the state constitution Secretary of State Lyons has taken great care to avoid sentences containing long or difficult words. At the same time Mr. Lyons has endeavored to provide extracts of approximately 50 words each, which would carry useful information to the new voter. For instance, one of the extracts selected reads as follows:
"All able-bodied male citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years who are residents of the state shall constitute the militia subject, however, to such exemption as are now or may be hereafter created by the laws of the United States or by the legislature of this state."

Law Allows Leeway.
The above selection contains 50 words. The law, however, allows the secretary of state some little leeway when it comes to the number of words by saying that the extracts shall be of "approximately 50 words each." As a result, the extracts which new voters may be called upon to read run anywhere from 45 to 60 words, but each will be complete in itself, and will be a source of information as well as test of one's reading ability.

First Test October 9.

New York state's new literary test for voters will be given its initial tryout in New York city on October 9,
the first day of registration this fall.
Outside of New York city the first tryout will be on October 13. Registration days in New York city will be from October 9 to 14, inclusive, while outside the metropolis, in cities and villages of 5,000 or more persons, where personal registration is necessary, the registration days will be October 13 and 14, 20 and 21.

Each board of election, under the provisions of the law, will be required to print its own pasteboard slips, on each of which will appear one of the extracts which Secretary of State Lyons has selected. These slips are to be uniform in size. The extracts from the constitution will be printed in English, the law specifying that double small pica type must be used.
The law further says in describing the method to be employed in testing the new voter's educational qualifications:

"The slips shall be kept by the inspectors in a box so constructed as to conceal the slips from view. The new voter, if required to prove his ability to read and write English, shall draw out at random one of such slips and read aloud intelligently all of the matter printed thereon, and shall then write legibly in English 10 words of the matter on such slip, to be selected by an inspector. Each slip shall be returned to the box immediately after each test, and the contents of the box shall be shaken up by an inspector before another drawing."

SCIENCE PROBES MYSTERY OF OKLAHOMA "HAUNTED HOUSE"

Haunted? The J. L. Wagoner Home at Norman, Okla., Where 12 Mysterious Fires Broke Out in 48 Hours.

(By Nea Service)
Norman, Okla., July 20. — Can science solve the mystery of the new Antigone—a ghostly haunted house—
a spooky "fire home?"

Where sheets burst into flames as one gets into bed—
And wash racks start burning when raised to the face?

That's what J. L. Wagoner, farmer
here, says happened in his house.
And members of his family bear out his story.

Farmers around Norman attribute these ghostly happenings to the supernatural. But authorities are seeking a scientific explanation—thus far without success.

In two days there were 12 fires—
all of mysterious origin.
The first occurred when Wagoner's wife opened a clothes closet. A flash of flame shot into her face.

Several hours later the roof of the house started burning.
The farmer picked up a wash cloth to wash his face. But the cloth began to burn!

Bed Sheets in Flame.

That night, the linen on his bed turned into a sheet of flame! The family ran from the house.

The next day they returned. The mysterious blazes broke out anew.

Sheriff W. H. Neuhack threw a guard around the place. Every person who entered or left the house was searched.

But the mystery wasn't solved.
A chemist from the University of Oklahoma took a hand. He is endeavoring to find a liquid solution that is combustible when it dries.

He hasn't found it yet.
No Farmer Wagoner still is haunted by fear that the mysterious fires
may start again at any time.

People hereabouts are recalling the famous haunted house at Antigone, N. S., where similar phenomena were reported.

POPULAR UNADILLANS MARRY

Mildred O. Hunt Becomes Bride of Louis F. Stoneman at Pretty Wedding Saturday Afternoon.

Unadilla, July 23.—Mildred Carolyn Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Hunt, and Louis Frisbee Stoneman, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Stoneman of Staatsburgh, were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in this village by Rev. G. M.
Case of the Baptist church in the presence of about 35 relatives and intimate friends. The double ring service was used and the bride was given away by her father. The wedding took place under an arch of blue and white, the color scheme in all the decorations. The bridal party marched into the parlors through an aisle of tulle held by Harold and Virginia Taine of Delhi and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Alton Anderson of Treadwell, a cousin of the bride.

The bride was attired in white canton crepe with a veil of tulle fastened with a band of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Bertha E. Hunt, who wore blue canton crepe and carried Ophelia roses. The best man was J. Bartlett Hunt, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served by Caterer W. A.
Southworth, the waitresses being Gladys and Mable Copley and Frances and Lillian Barden, girl friends of the bride. They were clad in blue and white in harmony with the general color scheme. After the dinner and reception the happy couple left on a wedding trip, upon their return from which they will reside in apartments
in the home of the bride's parents.
The wedding gifts were many in number and exceptionally handsome and valuable. The bride gave her attendants cut glass vases and the groom presented his best man with gold cuff links.

The bride is a graduate of the Unadilla High school, class of 1915, and of the Oneonta Normal school, class of 1917. For the past three years she has been supervisor of music in the union school at Staatsburgh, N. Y.
The groom was for ten years a valued employee and company of the Staatsburgh and a few months ago purchased a part interest in the Unadilla Hardware company. Both he and his bride have many friends in Unadilla who will offer most sincere congratulations and best wishes.

OTSEGO COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Endorse W. B. Auchepaugh of Oneonta for Member of Assembly, S. L.
Huntington for Surrogate and Dr.
Barney Phillips of Hartwick for Coroner. Delegates to State Convention Also Named.

Otsego county Democrats at a meeting of the county committee held at the Otsego hotel Saturday afternoon endorsed for the approval of the voters at the primaries in September the candidacy of William B. Auchepaugh of this city for member of assembly, of Shirley L. Huntington of this city to succeed himself as surrogate, and of Barney Phillips, M. D., of Hartwick, for coroner.

The meeting of the committee was well attended, between 30 and 40 of the members of the committee being in attendance. Hon. Chester A. Miller of this city, chairman of the county committee, presided, and Charles Beams, the secretary, officiated in that capacity.

In addition to naming these candidates as having the support of the organization, the following were named for delegates to the state convention to be held later in the fall: John B. McManus and Mrs. Isabelle B.
Lyde, both of Cooperstown, P. J. Gallagher and Everett B. Holmes of Oneonta.

Alternates—Terry B. Luce of Hartwick, P. H. Isbell of Morris, Mrs.
Mabel VanDeusen of Middlefield, and J. J. Burke of Oneonta.

The gathering named as a committee to fill vacancies P. J. Gallagher of Oneonta, Rowan D. Spraker of Cooperstown and Charles J. Beams of Oneonta.

There were no resolutions passed and no action taken upon candidates
other than those on the county ticket.
The endorsements given were unanimous, it being a foregone conclusion that Surrogate Huntington would be endorsed. Mr. Auchepaugh of this city is a well known representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Failed to Report Accident.

Late yesterday afternoon Chief of Police Horton received a call from Sheriff Williams to the effect that an automobile accident had occurred at Cooperstown and the driver of one of the cars had gone on without leaving his name. The chief proceeded toward Cooperstown and met the man, who proved to be Clarence D.
Stone of Brooklyn. When questioned Stone stated that the accident was slight, the cars coming together at a street corner and that comparatively little damage resulted to either machine. The other man was at fault, as Stone had the right of way, and as Stone's car was damaged so slightly that he had no desire to collect damages he had not thought it necessary to report the accident. After hearing the man's story, Chief Horton took his name and address and let him proceed on his way.

Benefit Well Patronized.

Reports from Cooperstown are to the effect that the benefit given at the Otsego on Saturday evening for the Little League of the Young Defenders league was well attended by members of the summer colony
at that place and proved very enjoyable. Music for the occasion was donated by the Otsego orchestra and the Cooperstown band. The proceeds could not be given out yesterday as several bills had not been presented. It is the expectation that a goodly sum will have been realized.

Admitted to Bail.

Joseph Severino, the Pole who was apprehended for swindling a fellow countryman out of about $4,000 recently at Oneonta, and who had been held in the county jail, was admitted to bail on Monday upon application of Clemente G. Tennant, the defendant's attorney. Joseph Warren and Rocco Cardone, professional bondsmen, who furnished the security, were in town several days until the matter was disposed of standing

DEATH OF MRS. W. L. MORRISON

In One Short Week Wife Follows
Husband to the Tomb.

Many friends will learn with surprise, and all with regret, of the death of Mrs. Walter L. Morrison of 6 Telford street, this city, which occurred on Saturday last at the State hospital in Binghamton, only one week after the demise of her husband. At the time of her husband's funeral on Tuesday last it was known that Mrs. Morrison was seriously affected, both mentally and physically, by the stress of his illness and subsequent death. On Wednesday her mental condition became so serious that by advice of her physician she was taken to the hospital for treatment; and three days after her own demise followed, practically a week to an hour after that of Mr. Morrison.

The body of Mrs. Morrison will be brought to Oneonta, where on Tuesday at 2 p. m., the funeral services will be held at her late home. Rev.
Dr. Edson J. Farley will conduct the services and burial will be beside her husband in the Plains cemetery.

Mrs. Morrison, whose maiden name was Edna May Fairchild, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fairchild of Schenectady. She was born in Oneonta, October 3, 1890, later moving with the family to Schenevus. She was married to Mr. Morrison about 14 years ago. During much of the time they had been residents of Oneonta, but in the meantime had for short intervals lived in Richfield Springs, Watervliet, Waterville and Cobleskill. From the latter place they returned about four years ago to Oneonta, which has since been the family home. She was a member of the Eastern Star at Richfield Springs, her late husband being also a member of the Masonic lodge at that place. She was a loving wife and daughter and has many friends who will mourn her loss.

The deceased is survived by her parents and by one sister, Mrs. Leslie Fink of Schenectady. These are the only near surviving relatives. Numerous friends will extend heartfelt sympathy to the immediate families of both Mr. and Mrs. Morrison in their double bereavement.

This week is the time

RIGHT now—today—make sure you'll be one of the lucky homeowners who get ARCOLA, the wonderful new hot-water heating-system, installed in their homes before cold weather. Last Fall there was a big ARCOLA shortage. This Fall we predict the same thing. So many people wait until the last minute, some will be disappointed. This week, while we have more time, let us install ARCOLA in your home.

Save money on ARCOLA now

(These figures, though rough, will show how reasonably ARCOLA can be completely installed
— despite the fact it pays for itself in the fuel it saves.)

3-Rooms	Arcola with 2 radiators	$265
4-Rooms	Arcola with 3 radiators	$285
5-Rooms	Arcola with 4 radiators	$350
6-Rooms	Arcola with 5 radiators	$375

Phone or call and we'll gladly give you the exact cost of putting ARCOLA in your home—but, for your own good, do it now before the Fall rush.

SECOND DAY OF CHAUTAUQUA

ENTERTAINMENT OF GENUINE MERIT WITH PROGRAM OF SATURDAY.

Enthusiastic Tenth Listens With Delight to Program by Geoffrey O'Hara and His Associates — Kipling and the Indiana Poets Discussed by Prof. Amshary in Afternoon and Evening—The Program Today.

It was not the music which preside over tragic art, astronomy and the sciences or yet over history, which influenced the choice of programs for Saturday last at the Redpath Chautaqua. Rather the muses which are reputed to have a watchful eye over poetry and the lyric art attended to the choice of participants and of the numbers to be presented, and unquestionably, though Greeks of many centuries ago, they made a good job of it.

The artists were all of fine quality, and whether they spoke or sang, or with musical instruments interpreted,
they held the attention and elicited the applause of the audience from beginning to end of each performance.

Two of the three entertainments of the day were given by Prof. Wallace Bruce Amshary, who is lecturer on general literature in the Armour institute at Chicago. The first of these was given in the morning, the second in the afternoon. Kipling, as below is noted, was the theme of the morning lecture, and in the afternoon his discourse was called "Watching the World Go On."

The Singer of the Seven Seas.

Rudyard Kipling had his day in court at the morning session and Wallace Bruce Amshary presented his case with such skill and mastery art as to leave little doubt in the minds of his auditors that the Enlish bard is indeed the real poet-larre of the Anglo-Saxon race, the man who above all others of the present generation has been able to understand and interpret all of the many sides of him who speaks the English language. Mr. Amshary, who is professor of general literature at the Armour Institute in Chicago, outlined the general incidents in the life of Kipling from his early days on a struggling army journal in India when parody and caricature the tributes that mediocrity pays to genius were an every day occurrence, until the present day, when his skill is universally recognized and recited many passages from his poems all with an eloquence and deep understanding that captivated his hearers.

Kipling is more than a ballad manger, said the speaker. His poems are highly entertaining it is true but they are more than a mere succession of pretty words strung together with a catchy swing and rhythm. Kipling has been the spokesman of the English nation, and has consistently sounded the bugle note of empire and the greatness of man. He has been called a jingoist and an inciter to war, but his writings to his people as continued in such masterpieces as "The Time of the Year" have arisen solely out of a supreme love of country.

The many-sided nature of the man was well brought out by Prof. Am-shary. A pagan he could be at times as witness much of his Indian verse but deeply religious he was in spirit with the primitive creed of faith. The "Recessional" is the best bit of religious poetry in a decade and the "Hymn Before Action" and "Me-Andreas Hymn" further illustrate the nature of his faith. Kipling's love of nature, his understanding of the complex being woman, his knowledge of the innermost thoughts of the common British soldier, that most interesting of mortals, his keen philosophy of life and his intense virility all were illustrated by appropriate poems recited by the speaker.

Kipling needs no pleader before the court of the world, but such lectures as Prof. Amshary delivered can do much toward bringing about a better understanding and appreciation of the poetry of the greatest literary impressionist of his age.

Poetry of the Middle West

In the afternoon Prof. Amshary changing in great measure the character of his address, used as title of his lecture, that it can be called which was in large part an interpretation, the words
"Watching the World Go On." Himself a native of Indiana, and a poet of distinction in that school which has been denominated "of the Middle West," the speaker entered with genuine appreciation into the work of James Whitcomb Riley and other poets of the same school whose homely humor, genuine pathos and kindly imaginative spirit have won for the Indiana poets a name and given them a permanent abiding place in the hearts of their countrymen.

As was natural and is proper, the larger part of the speaker's hour and a half was devoted to a study of Riley, whom Prof. Amshary had the good fortune personally and with a degree of intimacy to know. Riley was not only the first of the poets of his school, he was unquestionably the best of them, and though his successors have not been mere imitators and though they have in many instances struck clear and abiding notes of their own he still remains pre-eminent. Prof.
Amshary not only, as above stated,
had the good fortune to know him personally, but he is himself indigenous to the soil and is able to visualize the life that is portrayed and to do full justice in interpretation.

Besides several of the poems of Riley, to which many would have been glad to have had added such favorites as "Little Orphan Annie," and
"On the Sunny Side." Mr. Amshary gave selections from other writers of homely verse and in conclusion a number of selections from his own work, most of them in the "Trench patrons" which many recall as having had in Prof. Drummond perhaps its best interpreter, but which certainly lost nothing when told by the speaker of the afternoon, telling his own stories.

Ontario Welcomes Mim Mack Again

Six years ago the past winter
Geoffrey O'Hara delighted the members of the Ontario club with their friends at an entertainment given as one of the series of winter diversions of that well known social organization. Since that time the talented singer and composer has traveled far on the road of time and his wonderful friends and wide popularity yet when he appeared before the Chautauqua audience Saturday evening—a big audience by the way and one which filled the tent—he was the same genial, unaffected son of Erin that always he was bubbling over with laughter and with the joy of life. These same fine qualities, by the way are inherent in or were impressed by him on his two associates, and the result was a happy commingling of humor, harmony and happiness which will long be remembered as qualities of the company O'Hara.

Since it is a Celtic quality whenever the Celt pleases to put the argument hindsides foremost, whence comes the well known Irish Bull.
It was perfectly natural that Mr.
O'Hara should begin his program with the first numbers on the printed announcement singing "There is No Truth I Love a Little Cottage" and "The Wreck of the Julla Lantz," which like all the other numbers he sang were of his own composition.
That they pleased his audience need not be told, but that those which followed were keenly appreciated by the large number who hung with closest attention upon them and followed in each instance with spontaneous and prolonged applause. With a voice of excellent quality and unusual range and with a clearness of enunciation which is in added charm Mr.
O'Hara quickly established himself in the affections of his hearers, who would be glad to give every one of them to keep him here.

Features of Mr. O'Hara's program which were of special interest were the singing of "K-K-K-K" with abundance of amusing and interesting variations. Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride, a Victrola number,
Your Eyes Have Told Me, sung by Cyrus with accompaniment played by Mr. O'Hara who was the composer and "Divide My Home," also on the Victrola with the author playing the accompaniment and singing the chorus as he said, in a duet with himself. Also distinctly interesting was a lucid explanation of How Songs are Made, which he demonstrated by making one impromptu on a motif suggested by the audience.

Excellent as were the numbers by Mr. O'Hara no mention of the entertainment would be complete or entirely just which was without reference to Miss Marion Carley, pianist, and Miss Marie Harcourt, violinist.
Each in her way is an artist of merit,
and by her work sustained the quality and varied the character of the program. The former's left hand rendition of the sextet from "Lucia"

was masterly as a tour de force, while her other numbers were of such delight to all. Miss Harcourt also in "Her-Kali," "The Swan" and "Pierrot Gal" as well as several encore numbers by Kreidler, charmed with the delicacy of her touch and the fineness of her art.

Today's Program.

Today's program should be one of the very best of the week. This morning at 10 o'clock Georges Henri Le-Barr, who has made a life study of man will lecture his subject being
"Why You Are What You Are." He will have many suggestions helpful to those who wish to make the most of themselves.

This afternoon at 2.30 o'clock,
Frank L. Loveland of New York city, will discuss educational and social problems, his subject being "America's Battle With Ignorance." He talks straight from the shoulder and will arrange our educational system which he says is arranged for about 2 per cent of the people and only partially adapted to the needs of the other 98 per cent.

This evening at 8 o'clock, "Turn to the Right" one of the best of American comedies, will be presented.
It tells the story of the kind of a youth common to every town in America, the youth who leaves his home to seek his fortune in the city.
He goes wrong and is brought back to the right track by mother love.

All through it bristles with good fun. You will like Mother Bascorn and her peach jam, the village belles Joe, Sammy Martin and all the rest of the typical characters.

As is customary with Redpath plays the cast will comprise notable
New York actors including Frederick Roland and Beverly West.

FARMERS PICNIC AT NORWICH

Congressman John D. Clarke to Be Principal Speaker on Aug. 5.

Norwich July 23 — Arrangements are being made for a tremendous crowd at the Big Three picnic the farmers picnic to be held at the fair grounds in Norwich, Saturday, August
5. The Big Three are the fair, the Bulldogmen League and the farm and home bureau.

More than 6,000 persons were in attendance at the picnic last year, but with the elaborate plans which are going forward for the 1922 event it is expected 10,000 will attend this year.
The picnic is to be well advertised and visitors are expected from Madison and Oswego counties as well as Chenango county.

There will be something doing every minute from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m.
The committee has engaged the Symna band to stir the program of the day at 9 a. m. by marching to the fair grounds. The first big event of the picnic will take place at 10 o'clock, when the Jolly Jesters from New York city, members of child health organizations will give from a half hour to three quarters of an hour performance in front of the grandstand for the benefit of women and children.
Men will be interested as well in this work.

A three ring circus will commence at 10 o'clock. Competitive sports for children of all ages such as porcupine sack races, high jump and running races, will be one part of the program.

For the men there will be a tug-of-war between the grange and league. A banner will be given as a prize to the winner. There will be a ball game between farm bureau members from two towns. Columbus members will compose one ball team and it is probable McDonough will be the other.

Dinner will be served at 12 o'clock.
Arrangements have been made to have several home bureau booths on the grounds where soft drinks, hot dogs, ice cream and sandwiches will be sold.

At 1 o'clock there will be community singing for 20 minutes. At the conclusion of this the speaking program will commence. Congressman John D. Clarke will be the chief speaker. Another equally prominent speaker is Rush F. Lewis, known as the Billy Sunday of the Dairyman's League. President F. R. Clark of the farm bureau will preside over this part of the program.

Home Bureau at Westville.
Westville, July 21 — The next meeting of the Westville home bureau will be at grange hall Wednesday, July 26, beginning at 10.30 a. m. Please be on time, bringing box lunch. Miss Rossetman will give a demonstration in cooking a meal with pressure cooker in the morning and the afternoon lesson will be on food preservation.

DECKERS BUY BIG ISLAND

Hotel Proprietor at Owego Purchases
Hiawatha Island in Susquehanna River and Plans Summer Resort
There.

Owego July 23 — A real estate deal of unusual importance was concluded
last week by which Mr. and Mrs.
Dwight D. Decker, proprietors of the Ah-wa-ga hotel, became owners of Hiawatha Island, formerly known as Big Island comprising 112 acres in the Susquehanna river a few miles east of Owego. In the seventies and eighties the property was the scene of great activity, as a dam in the river gave sufficient head to permit the running of a steamboat with a capacity of nearly 1,000 passengers at a trip and the big hotel building was occupied by city people who came there for the season.

Since the dam went out the value of the property as a pleasure resort grew less and it was abandoned and the island was sold to Dr. S. Andrus Kilmer who planned to establish a sanitorium but gave it up, sold the property and went to Santarita Springs
north of Birmingham, instead.

The Deckers plan for two years to use the island, the far greater part of which is tillable for raising vegetables, fruits and keeping an accommodated herd of Holstein-Friesian cattle.
They plan to produce milk cream and butter and poultry and eggs for the Ah-wa-ga.

After two years they expect to open the property for a summer resort to model the old hotel building and cater to city trade to be attracted by the scenery, the splendid black bass and pike fishing, the good roads for motoring and many other desirable features.

It is planned to build a bridge across to the south side of the river where the Liberty highway passes and the Lackawanna road runs and a ferry across to the Erie road on the north side of the river as was done when the place was so popular as a resort that 3,000 people visited it in one day.

MARRIED IN ONEONTA

Margaret Macduff of Schenectady and Louis R. Parkerson of Long Branch Celebrate Nuptials Yesterday Afternoon at St. James' Church.

Schenectady July 23 — The marriage of Miss Margaret Macduff of Schenectady to Louis R. Parkerson of Long Branch was solemnized by Rev. L.
Curtis Denney at St. James' church
Oneonta, Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The bride who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Macduff, sr. was attended by Miss Jessie Walthart of Ovid and the groom by James R. Macduff, a brother of the bride. Others present were
Mr. and Mrs. William Macduff, sr.
Mr. and Mrs. William Macduff, jr. of Schenectady and Mr. and Mrs. Abie Burdick of Maryland.

Mrs. Parkerson is a graduate of the Schenectady High school and training class and for several years has been a teacher in the public schools of Long Branch and for the past two years has taught at Yonkers. Mr.
Parkerson is superintendent of distribution of the Consolidated Gas company of New Jersey. He is a graduate of the school of electrical engineering of the Kansas State Agricultural college Manhattan, Kansas.
Best wishes and congratulations will be extended the couple by a large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Parkerson left this evening for their future home in Long Branch.

The Old Carriage Maker Had an Important Truth

"To make each part as strong as the rest," was his way of "building a wonderful, one-horse chaise that wouldn't wear out till judgment day."

This illustrates a fact that is keeping many doctors busy these days—human bodies, like chaises, break down because some part isn't as strong as the others.

Very often it's because of ill-balanced food, lacking in some important element of nutrition. This is especially true of ills developed in childhood, and carried on through life.

Grape-Nuts, that world-famous, ready-to-eat cereal, brings the plan of building each part as strong as the rest—to serve human need. Grape-Nuts contains all the nutriment of those best of the field grains, wheat and barley, including the vital mineral elements, and it is a wonderful food for building and sustaining health and strength.

The delicious flavor and crispness of Grape-Nuts make it a welcome dish whenever you're hungry.

Pockets for Fall

Embroidered pockets of odd sizes and shapes of striking colors are the newest thing about fall skirts. Black, brown, gray, navy blue and tan are shown as backgrounds for the vivid embroidered or woven bands, often 15 inches deep.
